□ ABBOTT AND COSTELLO MEET FRANKENSTEIN (COMEDY)
Bela Lugosi, Lon Chaney, Jr.
 The boys meet up with Dracula who plans to put Lou's brain in the Frankenstein monster. Werewolf Larry Talbot (Lon Chaney Jr.), tries to warn the boys but then decides that Lou would make a good lunch. One of the all time great horror comedies. (1948) (79 min.)

□ THE ABOMINABLE DR. PHIBES (HORROR)
Vincent Price, Joseph Cotton, Terry-Thomas
 The bad doctor seeks revenge on those who caused his wife's death. One of Vincent's greatest roles. (1971) (94 min.) (PG)

□ ABOUT LAST NIGHT (COMEDY)
Rob Lowe, Demi Moore, James Belushi
 It's not so easy to love someone but it's much harder to say "I love you," as Danny and Debbie find out in this look at romance in the 80's. This is the story of two people who meet in a Chicago nightclub and fall in love, despite Danny's best friend. (1986) (113 min.) (R)

□ ABSENCE OF MALICE (DRAMA)
Paul Newman, Sally Field
 Sally is tricked into writing a newspaper story unjustly discrediting Newman. He complains but she claims privilege of the press. Enraged, he plans a stunning revenge in this impressive social drama. (1961) (116 min.) (PG)

□ THE ABSENT MINDED PROFESSOR (CHILDREN)
Fred MacMurray, Ed Wynn, Keenan Wynn

James Bond's highest flying adventure finds him battling Hugo Drax and the monstrous "Jaws" in outer space. The villain hijacks a space shuttle and intend to depopulate the Earth from a gigantic radar proof space station. (1979) (126 min.) (PG)

□ MOSCOW ON THE HUDSON (COMEDY)
Robin Williams, Alejandro Rey
The saxophone player, in a Russian circus touring the United States, impulsively decides to defect while on a shopping spree in Bloomingdale's department store in New York City. This film is hilariously funny and very touching as Robin Williams gives a masterful performance as the tuneful expatriate. (1984) (115 min.) (R)

□ MOSES (DRAMA)
Burt Lancaster, Anthony Quayle
One of the all-time classics, with Burt as a man who is dedicated to freeing his people. A must-see. (1976) (141 min.) (PG)

□ MOTOWN TIME CAPSULE: THE 60'S (MUSIC)
The Miracles, Mary Welch, The Temptations
If you had to compile some of the greatest acts in the history from the 60's this would be it. Just look at this list: "I Second That Emotion" (Smokey Robinson and the Miracles), "You Beat Me To The Punch" (Mary Wells), "The Way You Do The Things You Do" (The Temptations) and more. WOW!!! (1986) (50 min.)

□ MOTOWN 25: YESTERDAY, TODAY, FOREVER (MUSIC)
Smokey Robinson, Jackson Five, Temptations
The great Detroit sound featuring the historic reunion of the Jackson Five, the battle between the Temptations and the Four Tops, Boy George-Luther Vandross and Smokey Robinson-Linda Ronstadt duets, and more of the fabulous Motown sound. (1983) (130 min.)

□ MOUNTAIN FAMILY ROBINSON (ADVENTURE)
Robert Logan, Susan Damselle Shaw
A family escapes from the urban rat race to the wilderness, where they face the hostility of both Mother Nature and the U.S. Forest Service. A great escapist film for the whole family. (1979) (102 min.) (G)
